

DESCRIPTION

The PHOENIX sports glasses have been designed to listen to your favourite songs or podcasts while you practice sport thanks to their Bluetooth connection. With a modern and innovative design, these glasses include two types of lenses so you can wear them both day and night. With one or several touches you can answer calls, activate your voice assistant or manage the audio playback of your smartphone from your own glasses.

Double microphone

These smart sports glasses feature two microphones that offer better audio quality both during calls and when listening to music outdoors. Its ambient noise-cancelling microphone and call microphone will give you an unparalleled audio experience.

Your fingers have control

Its touch sensor makes it much easier to manage calls, activate your voice assistant or play your favourite songs. Just a few taps on the surface and you have everything under control. And turning the glasses on and off is as simple as opening and closing the right temple.

Designed for athletes

This model of glasses aims to become the perfect training companion thanks to its ergonomics and functionalities. These category 3 glasses are designed for activities such as running, cycling or skiing. Their IPX5 protection also ensures that sweat and rain are not a problem for them.

Fully customisable

Two interchangeable lenses, one in grey and one in clear, allow you to adapt your glasses to different times of the day. The dark grey Category 3 lens has UV400 protection, while the clear lens has UV320 protection. It also comes with 3 different sized nose pads so that PHOENIX will fit your face the best.

Contents:

- 1 Sport sunglasses with audio
- 2 Lenses
- 3 Almohadillas nasales de distintos tamaños
