

DESCRIPTION

Quitting chocolate is no longer an option. Xavier Mor's cocoa creams are the best option to give yourself a little bit of well-deserved self-care. Made by hand with the best Mexican Creole cocoa and top-quality wild hazelnuts, these creams are sugar free and vegan friendly. They are also lactose and butterfat free and they are rich in fiber.

Source of proteins

Xavier Mor chocolate creams are rich in proteins of a very high biological value. Only 100g of cream contain up to 18g of slow absorption protein MPI90, which makes them a perfect choice both to improve your diet and to gain muscle mass.

Everything that feels good

It's amazing how everything that feels good can fit into a chocolate spread. These creams are rich in fiber, vitamins and mineral salts, so they are the best allies to have a healthy diet without saying 'no' to chocolate.

Nothing bad for you

These creams contain no sugar or palm oil, so they are the best complement to a varied and healthy diet. Taking care of yourself has never been so easy or so much fun.

A cream for everyone

Xavier Mor chocolate creams contain no animal ingredients, which makes them suitable for vegan diets. They also contain no gluten or lactose, which makes them the perfect sweet touch for lactose-free and gluten-free diets.

The icing on the cake

Add your Xavier Mor chocolate creams to all your sweet recipes! They are not only the perfect topping to accompany your breakfasts, snacks or desserts, but they can also become the top ingredient of your sweet recipes, such as pancakes or cakes.
