

DESCRIPTION

This rain cover is the perfect ally for all those who have an Eiffel Basic Wallbox pedestal compatible with the Copper SB charger. With this accessory you will be able to install your Copper SB in outdoor spaces in an Eiffel Basic pedestal and protect it from the rain in an effective way, thus increasing its durability. This cover is made of aluminum, which makes it very resistant and prepared to withstand adverse environmental and meteorological conditions. In addition, it only measures 46,5 x 23,5 x 12,5 cm and weighs 1,5 kg. It has a simple installation method by means of the self-tapping screws that come inside the box. If you own a Wallbox Copper SB charger and you want to install it outdoors, do not hesitate to get this rain cover.
