KSIX Ultra-Fast Charging Cable with Stand, 60W, USB-C to USB-C, Power Delivery, Laptop Compatible, Braided, 1m, Black

DESCRIPTION

¿Looking for a cable that does it all? The KSIX USB-C to USB-C cable charges, transfers data, and holds your phone so you can watch a movie! With a 1-meter length, 60W power, and Power Delivery compatibility, it's perfect for lightweight laptops, smartphones, tablets, or whatever else you need. Plus, its braided design prevents tangles, and the foldable magnetic stand keeps your phone steady while it charges. Binge your favourite series or jump into a video call—you decide!

Enjoy while you charge

The KSIX USB-C to USB-C cable comes with a built-in foldable magnetic stand, perfect for propping up your phone on any surface. Whether you're streaming a show, watching a movie, or taking a video call, do it comfortably while charging. When you're done, the stand folds neatly into the cable, staying securely in place thanks to its magnetic design.

Built to last

Braided, soft, and reinforced—this cable combines style and durability. It's flexible, tangle-free, and tough enough to handle the daily grind or long workdays. A reliable accessory that keeps up with your pace and looks great doing it.

Power Delivery compatible

Give your devices the fast and smart charge they deserve. Thanks to Power Delivery compatibility, this cable optimizes energy for efficient charging of lightweight laptops, smartphones, and tablets. It's not just fast charging—it's better charging.

Fast Charging, faster data

¿In a rush? The USB-C to USB-C cable delivers 60W of power for ultra-fast charging and transfers data at speeds of up to 480 Mbps. Perfect for syncing files, photos, music, or anything else in no time flat.

One cable, endless possibilities

Lightweight laptops, smartphones, earphones, tablets—if it has a USB-C port, this cable has you covered. Designed to meet today's market standards, the KSIX cable is your universal solution with style, power, and versatility.
